PROFILE

Shri Magharam Kularia, the respected Founder and Mentor of ANJ Group, is a visionary leader whose commitment to craftsmanship and precision has been the foundation of the company's success. Combining deep traditional expertise with modern innovation, he established ANJ's advanced manufacturing facility, designed to deliver scalable, high-quality, and sustainable interior solutions.

His leadership embodies discipline, integrity, and respect for both people and processes. He champions sustainable building and manufacturing practices, ensuring that every project balances environmental responsibility with design excellence. His focus on transparency and trust has built strong, enduring partnerships with clients and collaborators alike.

As a cultural anchor and mentor, he continues to guide the next generation of leaders, instilling a values-driven approach that harmonizes tradition with technology. Under his stewardship, ANJ maintains its reputation for delivering purposeful, responsible, and future-ready solutions rooted in quality, cultural continuity, and long-term value creation.
